BSS Investigations&Expressions

Reggio-inspired learning for educators

Where: The Bishop Strachan School, 298 Lonsdale Road, Toronto

When: October 29, 2015 | February 18, 2016 | April 22, 2016 | May 5, 2016

Time: 10:00 am to 4:00 pm (registration from 10:00 to 10:15 am)

The Bishop Strachan School, a leader in teacher research, project work and inquiry-based learning, is holding exciting workshops for educators seeking to embrace innovative practices for 21st century learning. These hands-on sessions delve into the art of engaging students in powerful conversation, and the process of creating collaborative and vibrant learning environments.

Through a variety of guided experiences and presentations, we will explore how our teaching pedagogies can be transformed when value is given to developing rich learning environments and honouring the role of teacher as researcher. We will investigate documentation as a means to making learning visible and deepen understanding.
